Letters of credit and bills of exchange have their merits, of course—but when traveling, positively the best way of carrying funds is through the medium of TRAVELERS' CHEQUES.

Stores and hotels all over the world are glad to accept them at par; even if you lose the actual cheques their value may be recovered; your counter-signature makes them negotiable; they are inexpensive.

WORTH WEIGHT IN GOLD?

GLASGOW.—A woman who swallowed $87.50 in gold has been sent to prison here.

She stood in the dock with another woman on a charge of attacking and robbing a man and she admitted that while running away, she swallowed 15 sovereigns and five half-sovereigns.

When the women were captured, after a chase, no trace could be found of the money, but the police had their suspicions, which were confirmed when the X-rays were brought into use.

One woman, who struck the man in the face, breaking his eyeglasses, was sentenced to six months' imprisonment.

SUGAR COMPANY STATES POSITION TO KAUAI FOLKS

The troubles of a few months ago between certain homesteaders at Kalaheo and the McBryde Sugar Company will be recalled by the following letter, which has been received by the settlers in that locality, says the Garden Island:

"To the Kalaheo Homesteaders, Kalaheo, Kauai.

"Sirs:—The McBryde Sugar Company has endeavored to cooperate in friendly relations with the homesteaders generally, and wishes to continue to do so as long as its attitude is reciprocated.

"But a disposition has recently been shown on the part of several of your number to interfere on established rights of the plantation, more particularly as regards rights of way for transmission of water, and to presume that no matter what antagonism may be displayed toward the plantation, the plantation may be expected, as a matter of course, to take or grind cane or otherwise continue to assist such persons.

"This company has heretofore agreed to take certain cane crops planted by homesteaders, and in view of the fact that wherever satisfactory terms are first mutually agreed upon, and the plantation's rights with respect to water and waterways are recognized.

"Notice is hereby given to all homesteaders and others that the company will not, except at its own option, take or grind cane unless previously contracted for; and all persons are hereby warned not to plant cane for this plantation under any other expectation.

"This company, in facing the sugar outlook and its own particular problems, needs encouragement and good will rather than petty antagonism, and it is sincerely hoped that the general friendly attitude which most of you have shown will continue, and that the benefit of this, not only to the plantation but to our locality in general, will be also realized by the few who apparently have not given the matter their serious consideration.

"Your very truly,
"The McBryde Sugar Co., Ltd.,
"Per F. A. Alexander,
"Manager."
